In a valley nestling in the Magaliesburg mountain range, lies an elegant and gracious country retreat, just 45 minutes from Johannesburg and Pretoria that is the best kept secret for both business and leisure guests.

Magalies Manor is a small but exclusive country establishment, offering the very best of cuisine, personalised service and privacy in a garden setting that takes one's breath away.

ACCOMMODATION

Hidden in exquisite gardens abundant with a purple array of glorious scented lavender, rosemary, agapanthus and jacarandas amongst willows and twining ivy, Magalies Manor has beautifully appointed Emerald rooms, each one private yet with sweeping vistas of the Magaliesburg panorama, gardens and dams through double doors. Each room, equipped with mini bar, has en suite bathrooms onto sunny, greenhouse atriums.

Equally luxurious but slightly smaller are the Amethyst rooms, some opening onto the garden and others boasting magnificent views, all in a classical earthy style. All rooms feature double or twin beds, DSTV and comfy designer armchairs to complete the pure luxury and comfort.

WINING & DINING

Wine and dine in either the private dining room for up to 50 people or in the terrace room, where you can sample the best of continental buffets, table d'hôte and exquisite home made desserts. Or enjoy special dining for a wedding or memorable occasion to suit your preferred style and cuisine choice in the Lapis Lazuli open to the gardens and hills.

Enjoy a variety of cocktails, wines and malts, a game of pool and on a cold Magalies' evening, sip port by a roaring fireplace in the elegant La Plume ladies bar. On a hot african evening, you can relax in the outdoor Smokey Quartz bar.

RELAXATION

Equally charming and tranquil is the thatched hotel proper, where you can languish in the comfort of the lounge where a trickling stream, blooming roses, abundant bird life calm your senses. Or visit the loft library, and sip a whisky, play backgammon or chinese checkers as the mountains shift colour at sunset.

OUTDOORS

In this idyllic rustic setting and crisp mountain air, you can spend the day by the pool, fish, bird watch, enjoy a riverine walk, a mountain hike or just relax under a gazebo and read. Plenty of team building activities complement your event in this wonderful setting.
